2024 Bible Reading Plan

The HEAR journaling method promotes reading the Bible with a life-transforming purpose to understand and respond to God's Word. Let's talk more about how to do a HEAR Journal. The acronym HEAR stands for Highlight, Explain, Apply, and Respond. Each of these four steps creates an atmosphere to hear God speak. Before reading the Bible, ask God to speak to you and for the Holy Spirit's guidance. Then, open your HEAR Journal, and at the top left-hand, write the letter H. It will remind you to read with purpose. One or two verses will usually stand out and speak to you as you read. Highlight each verse that speaks to you by copying it under the letter "H." Write out the following:

- The name of the book and passage of Scripture
- The chapter and verse numbers that especially speak to you
- A title to describe the passage

This practice will make it easier to find the passage when you revisit it in the future. After highlighting the passage, write "E" under the previous entry. You will now Explain what the text means. With the help of God's Spirit, you can understand the meaning by asking some simple questions.

- Why was this written and who was it originally written to?
- How does it fit with the verses before and after it?
- Why did the Holy Spirit include this passage in the book?
- What is He intending to communicate through this text?

You are beginning to discover God's specific and personal word for you, engaging with the text and wrestling with its meaning. After summarizing what you think the text means, write the letter "A" below and write the word Apply. Then, answer the questions to uncover the significance of these verses to you. Challenge yourself to write two to five sentences about how the text applies to your life.

- How can this help me?
- What does this mean today?
- What would the application of this verse look like in my life?
- What is God saying to me?

Finally, write the letter "R" for Respond below the first three entries. Your response to the passage may take on many forms. You may write a call to action. You may describe how you will be different because of what God has said through His Word. You may indicate what you will do because of what you have learned. You may respond by writing a prayer to God. Remember that this is your response to what you have just read.

Notice that all the words in the HEAR Journal formula are action words: Highlight, Explain, Apply, and Respond. God does not want us to sit back and wait passively. He desires that we actively pursue Him.
